

Energy Efficiency Summary Report 2023

CETIN Hungary Zrt.

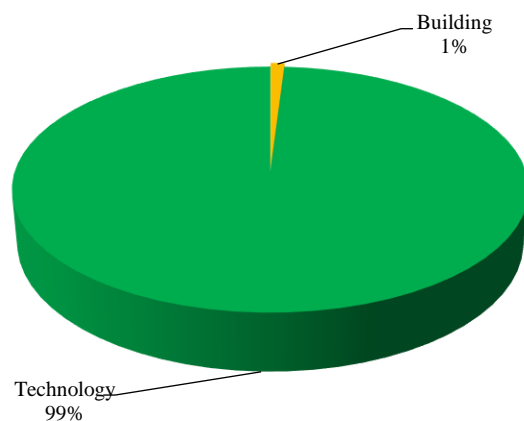

2045 Törökbálint, Pannon út 1.

I. Energy consumption in 2023:

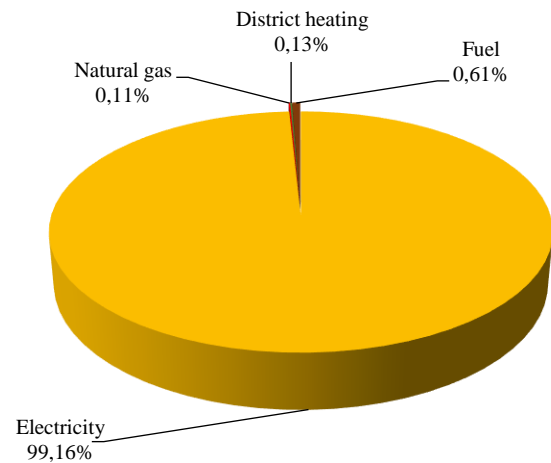

The main energy sources used by CETIN Hungary Zrt. were:

- Electricity, with consumption exceeding 80 GWh;
- Natural gas, with consumption between 0 and 10 000 m³;
- District heating, with consumption between 0 and 420 GJ;
- Fuel (petrol and diesel), with consumption between 0 and 550 MWh.

II. Share of energy consumption by use

III. Share of energy consumption by source

IV. Energy Efficiency Investments in 2023

In alignment with its commitment to energy-conscious operations, the company phased out 3G technology, implemented 4G optimization processes, and introduced 5G technology in 2023. In addition, a free-cooled liquid chiller was installed, energy-efficient air-conditioning equipment was replaced and higher-efficiency rectifiers were invested in. The energy savings achieved through these investments range from 1 to 10 GWh per year.

V. Awareness-Raising Activities in 2023

In 2023, the company implemented several awareness-raising activities, such as displaying posters from the MEKH to inform employees, providing management training on ESG topics, which concluded with a sustainability exam, participating in an international ESG workshop, and installing a sustainability banner at the company's headquarters.